

Student Registration Systems

Functional:

Student Registration Systems must allow the student to log in using their phone number registered to their student account.

Student Registration Systems must notify the student the last allowed date to drop a course.

Student Registration Systems must allow the students to know when a new subject is up.

Non functional:

The login screen should be fast and load in 2 seconds.

The site should be reliable and can hold heavy traffic when multiple students register at once.

The interface should be friendly and easy to navigate.

Online store

Functional:

The system must allow the customers to know when the transaction is successful by sending an email to him/her.

The system must allow the customer to use coupon codes during checkout.

The system must allow the customer to know the due date for his delivery.

The system must allow direct messages between the customer and the seller.

The system must allow multiple payment methods.

Non functional:

The interface should be friendly to end users.

The system should display a message if an item is out of stock.

The system should display the available quantity of an item.

The online transaction should be secure.

